

Logitech® for Business B750 Wireless Headset

...gives you the freedom to move about during audio or video conferencing

- 10-metre (33-foot) wireless range
- Simple setup
- High-quality laser-tuned speakers
- Rechargeable design
- Noise-cancelling microphone with fast mute

The B750 Wireless Headset gives you the freedom to move during audio and video conferencing. This easy-to-use headset delivers up to 10 metres (33 feet) of wireless range. Installation takes only seconds with the included USB wireless receiver. You won't miss a word when you're on a call or be distracted by distortion while you're working thanks to the laser-tuned speakers. The rechargeable design lets you focus on your calls. And the noise-cancelling microphone, with its mute button and flip-up muting, reduces background noise for clear conversations when you want to hear and be heard, and ensures that you're muted when you don't.
